

9/11 FIVE YEARS AFTER
First Preventers:
The Role of Law Enforcement in the War On Terror

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 2006

8:30 AM – 2:00 PM

ROOSEVELT HOTEL
EAST 45TH STREET AND MADISON AVENUE
NEW YORK CITY

In the five years since September 11th, the public discourse has focused primarily on the federal government's response to the lingering terrorist threat. There is a growing understanding, however, that state and local law enforcement have an important role to play. America's 700,000 state and local law enforcement personnel will always be first responders—but they can and should be first preventers, as well.
